WILSON ASKED NO FUNDS OF RYAN

Governor's Manager States Watterson's Offers to Solicit Funds from Magnate Were Rejected

NOT IN WILSON'S PLANS

Watterson Said to Have Declared that Money, not Patriotism, Counts in Campaign

NEW YORK, Jan. 29.—Suggestions by Col. Henry Watterson that he solicited a contribution to the Woodrow Wilson campaign fund from Thomas F. Ryan were met with declarations by William F. McCombs, Governor Wilson's campaign manager, that Mr. Ryan's money was not and could not be accepted as "such contributions were not within the spirit of the Woodrow Wilson campaign."

"Any communication which has been had between myself and Colonel Watterson regarding campaign funds has taken place in personal interviews between him and myself," said Mr. McCombs.

"There have been two interviews only. I intensely dislike to make a public statement of a private conversation and regret very much that Colonel Watterson has forced me to do so."

Conference in New York

"In October of last year I had a general conversation on presidential politics with Colonel Watterson at the hotel where he was stopping. I visited him at his suggestion. In the course of that conference he gave it as his opinion that a large amount of money would be needed and volunteered the suggestion that he would go and see his friend, Thomas F. Ryan, and that he was sure he could induce him to make a very large contribution to the campaign."

"I said to him that we could not take Mr. Ryan's money and that such contributions were not within the spirit of the Woodrow Wilson campaign. His reply was:

"I have been in politics fifty years and I know that money and not patriotism counts in a presidential campaign."

"I repeated to Colonel Watterson that we could not take the money. Early in December I met him again and he renewed the discussion of a Ryan contribution. I made the same answer to him that I had made before."

Thought Incident Ended

"I heard nothing further from Colonel Watterson on the subject and thought no more of the conversation. I have not seen him since that time."

"If I mistake not, there is an implication perhaps in Colonel Watterson's letter to Senator Tillman—probably not intended—to the effect that he secured funds for this campaign from Mr. Ryan. No such contribution has been made and this, of course, Colonel Watterson well knows."

Watterson Mum

WASHINGTON, Jan. 29.—The statement of William F. McCombs, Governor Wilson's campaign manager, was shown to Colonel Watterson here. He read it carefully but said he had nothing to add to his statement earlier in the day. He intimated that he would make no comment unless Governor Wilson should express himself.

Women Wear Trousers At Ball

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 29.—Mrs. Templeton Crocker's original ball Friday night when the society women appeared in silk pantaloons of lurid colors, was voted a huge success by the elite of the city.

The ball was held at one of the fashionable hotels, the ball room of which had been decorated to represent King Solomon's throne room. Multitudes of pink and green lights shone through clouds of incense and the walls were hung with tapestry worth a king's ransom. All of the waiters and attendants were garbed as Hindus or Turks.

The hostess' costume outshone all others. She wore mauve pantaloons, embroidered in gold and silver, covered by a silver veil dotted with pearls and sapphires. A pearl and sapphire coronet flashed upon her head. Mrs. Crocker's mother, Mrs. Will Irwin, wore oriental trousers of coral pink, veiled with broadcloth of gold worn as a tunic, with bodice and girdle of turquoise, pearls and sapphires. All of the other women guests wore Turkish pantaloons.

TAFT COMBATS BOB'S INFLUENCE

President to Make Big Speech in Ohio Tonight to Stem Tide of Progressivism

WILL DEFEND HIS POLICIES

Tippecanoe Club Speech to Vindicate Administration Is Written on Train Enroute

CLEVELAND, O., Jan. 29.—President William Howard Taft shipped into Ohio today with a wet blanket to fight the fires of progressivism which have been spreading through the state since Robert M. La Follette's visit of a month ago.

The exact nature of his defense against La Follette's sentiment in Cleveland was not decided until almost the minute of his arrival here. The president was busy all morning, from the time he breakfasted till the train had passed Newburgh, dictating and revising the speech which he will deliver at the Tippecanoe club's McKinley day banquet tonight.

This speech will be an answer to the attacks on the Taft policies and politics, and the president is said to have great hopes that it will be effective.

The Tippecanoe club's reception committee, which had planned to meet the presidential party at Alliance called off this advance greeting Monday and contented itself with receiving him at the Euclid Avenue station. It was announced that the party would have crowded the president's private car uncomfortably—and any way the speech was not prepared.

Taft was accompanied only by Major Archibald Butt, military aide; Congressman Nye of Minnesota; Major Thomas Rhoades, physician to the president, and executive stenographer, W. W. Mischler.

WOLLER DIES DENYING GUILT

Slayer of 15 Year Old Girl Executed; Coolest and Bravest in History of Prison

OSSING, N. Y., Jan. 29.—Protesting to the last that he was innocent of the murder of pretty Ruth Wheeler, whom he killed because she defied her honor, Albert W. Woller, a boy of less than 20 years, went smiling to his death in the electric chair in Sing Sing prison, today—the coolest convict ever killed in the grim state prison. Woller's brave remained with him to the last, "Good-bye, boys," he shouted to the other eighteen condemned murderers in "Death Row" as he walked steadily from his cell to the chair of death.

Just three hours before his death Woller wrote a statement in which he maintained his innocence and expressed the hope that the perpetrator would some day confess.

The statement was written in copper plate handwriting, every letter being beautifully formed. There was not the slightest tremor of the pen as he wrote.

CHAUFFEUR KILLS JEALOUS HUSBAND

Millionaire Clubman Shoots at Chauffeur, Said to Be in Love with Wife, and Is Killed

CLAIMS WAS WITH WIFE

In Ante-Mortem Statement Victim Declares Wife and Slayer Were Together at Time

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 29.—What promises to prove one of the most baffling mysteries encountered in recent years confronts the police today in the killing of J. J. Moore, millionaire clubman, who was shot Saturday night in a revolver duel with S. L. Timothy, a chauffeur. Moore died Sunday night after an unsuccessful effort had been made by surgeons to extract the bullet.

Although Timothy, who is in jail at Redwood City, insists that he shot Moore only in self defense and after the millionaire had fired several times the police insist that he was in love with Mrs. Moore and that the tragedy may have resulted from a fight between Timothy and Moore over the latter's wife. Timothy is chauffeur for a neighbor of the Moores. His story of the shooting is that he was driving a machine along the road past the Moore home when his engine "went dead." He was about to get out to crank the engine, he said, when a man whom he thought to be a highwayman, stepped out from behind a tree and opened fire. Timothy said he fired back once and the man fell to the ground.

Before his death, Moore made a statement to the city attorney alleging that he had been watching his wife, having suspected some misconduct.

He declared that Saturday night, while lying in wait near the Moore home, which Mrs. Moore occupies, he saw her in the auto with Timothy. He ordered Timothy to stop and the woman to get out, he said. She refused and Moore opened fire. Moore's statement concluded, Moore charged that Timothy was in love with Mrs. Moore and the police found her picture in the front of the chauffeur's watch.

Mrs. Moore denies that she went auto riding with Timothy Saturday night or at any other time. She declared that she was in her home all evening and that Moore was simply insanely jealous.

APOPLEXY KILLS FRANK SHADBOLT

Well Known Commercial Traveler Dies Suddenly in New York City

Relatives in La Crosse yesterday received the sad news of the death of Frank Shadbolt, a well known commercial traveler, who died in New York city Saturday evening. It is thought that apoplexy was the cause of death.

Mr. Shadbolt was taken ill suddenly Saturday afternoon in the office of the Cross & Beegun Jewelry company, New York, for whom he traveled and the end came that evening.

He was born in Cascade, Wis., in 1856, and he spent his boyhood in McGregor, Iowa. In 1875 he moved to La Crosse, where he started to learn the jewelry business and for the last thirty years he has been a commercial traveler for jewelry firms. He has been traveling for the Cross & Beegun company for some time, his territory being Wisconsin, Minnesota, North Dakota, South Dakota and a trip to the Pacific coast each year. La Crosse has been his headquarters for many years and he has made numerous friends here.

Mr. Shadbolt was married to Miss Melvina Hundemark in Caledonia, Minn., in 1878, and for the last eighteen years he has made his home near that town, where his family now resides on a large farm.

Mr. Shadbolt came to La Crosse the week before Christmas and he remained here until a week ago when he left for New York to get supplies for a business trip. He was a man who was very popular and who made many friends.

He is survived by his widow, two sons, Robert Moore Shadbolt, Scranton, S. D., and John Sibley Shadbolt, of Caledonia, Minn., and two sisters, Mrs. David Drummond and Mrs. Ora Austin of La Crosse.

It is expected that Mr. Shadbolt's body will pass through La Crosse Wednesday morning on the way to Caledonia where the funeral will be held. Funeral arrangements have not as yet been made.

BANK CLOSURE, MANY LOSE

WINDSOR LOCKS, Conn., Jan. 29.—Their savings of years in jeopardy, more than 1,000 families in this village and vicinity were stupefied today over the closing of the Windsor Locks Savings bank, following the death of its treasurer, Alfred W. Converse, who is blamed for an apparent shortage of $175,000.

Wrong Kate Buried; Right One Turns Up

CHICAGO, Jan. 29.—Mrs. John Harding gave instructions for the reopening of the grave in Mount Carmel cemetery in which a body supposed to be that of her sister, Mrs. Katherine McLean, had been buried.

Mrs. Harding almost collapsed when her sister, Mrs. McLean, came to visit her. She thought it was a ghost. Mrs. McLean, who is employed at a hotel down town, had heard nothing of the funeral, and indignantly insisted that she was no ghost. Investigation showed that a woman whose name was Kate McLean was killed by a street car a week ago. The face of the corpse was so mutilated in the accident that it was unrecognizable.

STRIKERS RIOT IN LAWRENCE

15,000 Strikers Attack Street Cars Loaded with Scabs and Hurt Several; Militia Keep Out

LAWRENCE, Mass., Jan. 29.—Placing their women and children in the front ranks under the protection of dozens of American flags, between ten and fifteen thousand textile strikers paraded in Lawrence streets today. The demonstration was intended as a protest against the refusal of the mill operators to treat with the strike leaders and to impress the townspeople with the determination of the strikers.

Orders had been given to observe the law, but when a motorman forced a trolley car containing non-union workers and strikebreakers through the line a portion of the crowd lost its temper, and an attack on the car followed. Before the police could act, the windows of sixteen trolley cars had been smashed and their occupants driven into the street. A militia captain and the superintendent of the street railway were badly cut about the face while half a dozen strikers were beaten by police and seven arrested.

The militia did not interfere, but guarded the bridges across the canal leading to the mill district. The paraders after marching to within a block of the bridges, sang the Marseillaise for several minutes and then proceeded in orderly manner.

5 YEAR OLD GIRL BEATEN TO DEATH

CHICAGO, Jan. 29.—That little five-year-old Nellie Goethler, who the police charge, was tortured and beaten to death, was the victim of repeated criminal assaults, was the statement made today by Coroner's Physician Rheinhardt, who conducted a post mortem.

William Goethler, father of the girl, and Mrs. Regina Schiller, who had been living with him, are held by the police on the charge that they beat her with sticks and whips and tortured her by making her stand on a hot stove.

Dr. Rheinhardt stated that the little girl died from exhaustion and pain. There were over 100 bruises and sores on her body. She was also suffering from a loathsome disease, according to the physician.

The police have continued the inquiry until tomorrow to investigate Goethler and the woman.

WILL PUBLISH PROGRAM

Married But Single; Come To La Crosse

"What? Not married?" articulated Miss Violet Wareing, Afton, S. D., in astonishment as Robert Marshall, whom she had promised to cherish and obey a month before, told her that she was not his wife, but merely his cousin.

"That's it, exactly," declared Mr. Marshall.

Mr. Marshall then hurried to explain that despite the fact that a marriage license had been procured and a minister had performed the ceremony, the closest relationship they could claim was that of cousins, owing to a law in South Dakota, making the marriage of cousins illegal.

A consultation with an attorney revealed the fact that there is a similar law in North Dakota, Minnesota and Iowa, and as a result a hurried trip to this city was the only solution.

BRANDEIS SCORES STEEL METHODS

Says Corporation Treats Its Employees Worse Slaves; Contradicts Gary

WORKED 84 HOURS A WEEK

Declares that in May, 1910, 50,000 Men Were Forced to Work 12 Hours a Day

WASHINGTON, Jan. 29.—Challenging the statement of Judge Gary that the United States Steel corporation was a model employer, Louis D. Brandeis today bitterly arraigned the methods of the trust before the Stanley committee.

"We have heard for a long time," said Brandeis, "the assertion that with labor the Steel corporation had an excellent record and its effort had been to 'advance the condition of its employees.' Judge Gary recently said that the treatment accorded its employees by the Steel corporation compared favorably with any corporation at any time in the history of the world."

"I contradict that statement with the report of the commissioner of corporations. It is shown that during May, 1910, 50,000 men, or 20 per cent of all employees engaged by the corporation worked 84 hours or more a week, a 12-hour working day, including Sunday."

Brandeis pointed out that every week or two, when day and night shifts were reversed some employees were obligated to remain on duty 18 to 24 hours.

"Compare the attitude of the Steel corporation with that of slave owner to the slave," said Brandeis.

"Every slave was regarded as valuable property. From pure selfishness the slave owner would not mistreat his slaves any more than he would his animals. They were valuable assets, apparently."

KICKS TO COMMISSION

WASHINGTON, Jan. 29.—The corporation commission of Oklahoma filed complaints with the interstate commerce commission today against alleged unreasonable high rates charged by railroads on supplies used by cotton gins and mills from St. Louis, Memphis, New Orleans and Texas cities to Oklahoma points.

JOHN D. BACKING CHINA REBELLION

In Return for Oil Monopoly in Celestial Kingdom, Standard Oil Pays the Bills

SHANGHAI, Jan. 29.—That the direct result of the uprising in China, should the revolutionary forces win and Dr. Sun Yat Sen finally become the chief executive of the new republic, will be possession by the Standard Oil company of all the oil resources of the nation, was the assertion today of high officials familiar with the situation.

The Rockefeller interests, it was said, are financing the revolution through agents now on the ground. Whether the president has actually signed the concession, is not known, but it is authoritatively asserted that if he was not, he will shortly do so.

By securing this concession, the American financiers have checkmated their European rivals. Representatives of the British and German oil syndicates have had preliminary surveys made and have authorized their representatives to secure concessions to develop the oil industry in various sections of the empire. The Standard's agent has been in touch with Dr. Sun, it is said, long before he left America, with the object in view of financing a successful revolution and so getting possession of the greatest undeveloped oil territory.

Gaby Denies Her Marriage To Pilcer

PARIS, Jan. 29.—Having acquired a real New York accent which interferes somewhat with her friends understanding her French, Gabrielle of the Lillies (Gaby Deslys) arrived home today, enthusiastic in her praise of New York.

Gaby was very coy about her reported marriage, but finally denied that she had wed Harry Pilcer, the eccentric dancer. She would not explain, however, how her friends in New York got cablegrams telling of the marriage signed with her name.

"Monsieur Pilcer is so nice," she said, "but you know he is a mere child. I am going back to America next September. I have signed a contract which will net me more money than I received before."

"The Americans are a fine people. They have extraordinary mentality, and the elegance of New York eclipses Paris. So with the money I shall earn over there, I shall build a theater here modeled and managed on American lines. And I know it will be a success."

JURY COMMISSION TO INVESTIGATE

Goes Into Executive Session to Discuss Charges Made by the Social Democrats

WILL ANSWER ALL CHARGES

Coburn Declares Socialists Are Evidently Ignorant of the Jury List Law

The La Crosse county jury commissioners, Frank Coburn, John Ulrich and William Smith, went into executive session at the court house at 2 o'clock this afternoon for the purpose of inspecting the jury list and discussing the charges made by the social democrats of La Crosse in a resolution presented to Judge Higbee last week asking for an investigation of the methods of the jury commissioner.

Mr. Coburn today declared that the socialist or any citizen in La Crosse county has a perfect right to demand an investigation but asserted that the socialists were evidently lacking in a knowledge of the laws governing the selection of jurors and the requirements for eligibility, as they demand that all of the names of La Crosse county citizens be placed on the jury list. According to Mr. Coburn there is a law which places the number at 500 or less and a list of exemptions which takes in all federal, state, county, city or town officers, doctors, physicians, telegraph operators, teachers, railroad employees, street car employees, foremen and others. All must have good hearing.

The commissioners will answer all of the charges and will present a written statement to Judge Higbee within a few days.

SAYS M'NAMARAS ARE INNOCENT

Former Attorney for the Brothers Declares Their Innocence Will Be Proven Soon

DENVER, Colo., Jan. 29.—That John and James McNamara are innocent of the Los Angeles Times dynamiting and will be proved so in a very short time, was the statement made before a Sunday meeting of the Trades and Labor assembly by Judge O. N. Hilton, who was first retained to defend the McNamaras and then withdrew from the case after Clarence S. Darrow had been engaged as chief counsel. Hilton also assisted in the defense of Moyer and Haywood at Boise, Idaho.

Hilton asserts that, although the McNamaras were innocent there was against them what on the face of it was a strong case. He asserted that they were induced to plead guilty through fear that, if their trials proceeded, they would be convicted and hanged.

ANDERSON SAYS HE WILL SURELY BE A CANDIDATE

Lanesboro Man Declares "Progressive League" that Attacked Him Are Standpat Editors

HE WILL NOT BE DIVERTED

Congressman Writes Tribune that He Will Not Let Cat-calls Divert Him from Duty

HAS FULLILLED HIS PLEDGES

First District Members Says He Will Stand on His Record in the Primary

Sydney Anderson will be a candidate for re-nomination for congress in the First Minnesota District.

He will stick to his duties in Washington, and cannot be enticed at present into a controversy with "the standpat editors" of the district.

He characterizes the "progressive Newspaper League" as a "business organization" of the press of a district whose standpat characteristics he says are shown by the fact that "sixty-five out of seventy odd papers in the district opposed his (Anderson's) nomination."

The congressman says he has fulfilled all pledges and will stand upon his record when he seeks re-nomination.

Foregoing are the important assertions in a letter received by the Tribune from Mr. Anderson in response to a telegram asking him if he would again be a candidate. Mr. Anderson's letter follows:

"HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Washington, Jan. 26, 1912.
"Mr. A. M. Brayton,
La Crosse, Wisconsin.
"My Dear Brayton:

"Following my telegram of yesterday in response to your wire inquiring as to whether I would be a candidate, despite the action of the Progressive League, I beg to say that in the first place you seem to be in error in your assumption that the resolutions were adopted by the Progressive League. While I have not seen them, my understanding is that the resolutions denouncing me for failure to carry out platform pledges were adopted by the First District Progressive Editorial Assn."

"The term 'progressive' in connection with this Assn. has no political significance, and is used in its commercial sense, rather than in any political sense, and when the organization was first effected, it was specifically understood that it was not a political organization."

"Now to answer your question a little more in detail, I want to say in the first place, that I have not seen the text of the resolutions, but I understand them to be substantially as stated in my telegram. The only answer I desire to make to the charges is to say that when the proper time comes, I shall make my campaign for re-nomination and reelection, and will make it squarely on the proposition that I have carried out every pre-election promise which I made, and that I have represented the sentiment of my district as expressed in the last election."

"For the present, my duty is here at Washington, doing the business of my constituents, and I do not propose to be distracted from the performance of that duty by the denunciation of the standpat editors of my district, whether these denunciations are fired at will or by volleys."

"In the last primary campaign 65 out of 70 odd papers in the district were opposed to my nomination. It ought not to be passing strange that these editors now dominate the editorial Assn. of the district, and that some of them should be willing to unite to encompass my defeat."

"With kindest personal regards, I am,
Yours very truly,
"SYDNEY ANDERSON."

CORBETT TELLS HIS EXPERIENCES

Gentleman Jim Accuses Johnson of Sidestepping All Fighters who Have a Chance with Him

The quarrel between James J. Corbett and Jack Johnson arises from Corbett's published belief that the big smoke is sidestepping a battle with any of the present heavyweights who have a chance with him, and is only trying to pick up easy money by licking the second and third rate white hopes. "Gentleman Jim" explained this to an audience at the Majestic yesterday in an interesting little talk on the present ring situation in the heavyweight class. Jim does not like Johnson, and he doesn't hesitate to say so. He wants to see him licked, preferably by a white man, although he admits that there is no white heavyweight at the present time who is in a class with the big black. But he declares that there are three negroes, any one of whom would be able to put up a scrap that would keep the present champion busy. These three, he claims, are Jeannette Langford and McVeagh, and he accuses Johnson of sidestepping them. Hence the row.

Corbett wants to see the championship rest in the hands of a white man, however, and he thinks that of all the present white hopes Al Palzer is the nearest to a possibility. He expects that within a year or so Palzer will be in shape to challenge Johnson.

Corbett's monologue at the Majestic consists of telling humorous stories of his career as a champion. He tells them well, and they are good anecdotes. He was greeted by a burst of enthusiasm when he first stepped on the stage, and was recalled several times in response to encores.

The rest of the bill is one of great merit. Closing are the Hassmans, a team of equilibrists who have an act that is surpassing of its kind. The work of the smaller of the team brought forth gasps of amazement from the crowds yesterday.

MINE OWNERS AND MEN CAN'T AGREE

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Jan. 29.—Miners and operators in the bituminous coal mining industry were agreed here today that there was small chance of the present joint interstate wage conference reaching an agreement. It was believed the demands of the miners for shorter hours and increased wages and the proposals of the operators for longer hours and decreased wages were too far apart to permit of an immediate compromise. Leader in both groups said that it was likely the present joint conference would adjourn and that a later meeting before April 1 would be arranged for.

READY TO FIGHT

WINNIPEG, Man., Jan. 29.—Eleven hundred natives of Ulster today volunteered to return to Ireland and take up arms against the government if a home rule law is passed. They bitterly condemned Winston Churchill for consenting to speak in favor of home rule at Ulster hall "where a generation ago his father fought against self government for Ireland."

Mourners Lynch Slayer
BESEMER, Ala.—Mourners at the funeral of Joe Gagliano left the funeral procession when they saw Gagliano's slayer, a negro, being transported to jail by deputies, and killed him.

Street Cries in Minor Key.

"Street cries are nearly always in the minor key," says the Paris Journal des Debats. And an English commentator avers that this key is maintained in our own street cries—such as "Sweet Lavender." And he thinks the explanation is that the minor key involves less strain on the throat that has to emit the same cry all day long. But London cries are few of them in the minor key of the Parisian boy who heralds the evening on the boulevards with "Volla Le Soir." Our own newspaper boy has cultivated the raucous monotone that collects politics and murders into one simple yell. There is nothing of the minor key about the milkman's announcement. And perhaps the least musical of all cries is that of the man who hawks coal about the street. He does not shout "Coal." No stranger would suspect him of coal. He emits only a single bellow, repeated at short intervals, a bellow without form or comeliness; it is the least common denominator of the street cry.

Wonderful Island.

New Zealand has one of the most marvelous and phenomenal islands in the world. It is situated in the Bay of Plenty and is called White Island, and consists mainly of sulphur mixed with gypsum and a few other minerals. Over the island, which is about three miles in circumference, and rises over 800 feet above the sea, there continually floats an immense cloud of vapor, often attaining an altitude of 10,000 feet. In the center is a boiling lake of acid—charged water, covering 50 acres and surrounded with blow holes from which steam and sulphurous fumes are emitted with great force and noise. With care a boat can be navigated on the lake.

Wisely Answered.

I am clearly for following Thimblestock's advice, who being once asked how he would marry his daughter, whether to one that was poor but honest, or to one that was rich but of an ill reputation, made answer: "I had rather have a man without an estate than an estate without a man."—Cicero.

alarm is the name of a new monthly bulletin of the Fire Marshal's association of North America, pub-

the new periodical is James M. Sexton, who for five years served as first assistant state fire marshal of Wisconsin.

The magazine consists of twenty pages, well filled with interesting and valuable information regarding the ney's court. Mrs. Morrow, who was

2 DIE; TRAIN HITS SLEIGH

BENTON HARBOR, Mich., Jan.
29.—Two were killed and two others seriously injured when a Michigan Central passenger train, entering this city, struck a farmer's sleigh.
The accident occurred at Hickory Creek crossing, where the road cuts
the tracks at a sharp curve.

WINONA INTERESTED
IN COMMISSION FORM

"Birmingham, Ala., is the largest city in Alabama, and it is also one of the largest cities under the commission plan. It is nearly twice as large as Duluth, thanks to steel manufactures such as Duluth is soon to have.
It went under the commission plan last April. In the first month under the new system the city borrowed half a million dollars at the lowest rate in its history. The commission cut the annual running expenses of the city by $75,000 in the first week.
The plan has been working along
those lines ever since.

"Perhaps a plan of city government that would work out so well in Birmingham might help Winona.
The foregoing, from the Winona Republican and Herald, indicates that the Alabama city has found the commission form of government well worth while. It is also interesting as showing the trend of thought in Winona upon this important subject,
and while the idea was threshed out
in La Crosse nearly two years ago it is possible that our Minnesota neighbor may 'beat us to it.'

Some time ago The Tribune called attention to the new law passed by the last Wisconsin legislature, the provisions of which are far superior to the Whitehead law in force at the time commission government was first seriously discussed in La Crosse.
The new law also affords a more convenient method of getting the matter before the people and a wider lattitude in the selection of the exact form of government to be adopted.

Eau Claire adopted the commission plan nearly two years ago, and Janesville and Superior did so this week, while Madison will vote on the question next week, and Fond du Lac
and Sparta are agitating the subject.
If La Crosse was seriously interested in commission government two years ago it would seem that, with new and positive advantages incorporated in the law, the subject is still worthy of discussion.

Asked by a strange lady in a department store to hold her baby for a moment, Mrs. Mary Angel of Chicago is still holding it, the woman having failed to come back. Is this another
'white lie' such as they tell the other children?

After two experiences in wedlock,
Mary Pope of Philadelphia, secured
a written promise from her 70-year-old lover that if she accepted him he would stay home nights. Why not hide his crutches?

WOODMEN RAISE RATES

CHICAGO, Jan. 29.—By a majority of 150 the delegates to the national convention of the Modern Woodmen of America here today adopted a resolution which will raise all whole life insurance rates from 50 to 100 per cent over the price now being paid. The new rates will go into effect January 1, 1913.

LA FOLLETTE MEN MEET

HASTINGS, Neb., Jan. 29.—More than a hundred members of the Fifth Nebraska Congressional District La Follette league met here Saturday evening and elected two candidates
for delegates to the republican national convention.

Resolution were adopted declaring
for Senator La Follette for president, with a suggestion that, if a candidate, Theodore Roosevelt would be an acceptable second choice.

Pies Loaded With "Skey"

DEVILS LAKE, N. D.—County officials are investigating the heavy sale of mince pies, alleging that bakers are violating the prohibition law in selling pies "loaded with old

Puts Wife's Ashes on Ice

his daughter complied with his wife's dying request and scattered
her ashes over the ice of Blanchard river here.

Dermatologist Gives Complexion Secret

"The great secret of keeping the face young is to keep off the dead
cuticle," said Dr. J. Mortimer Mitchell, the noted English dermatologist,
now visiting this country. "It is well known that the surface skin is constantly dying, falling off in imperceptible particles, except in some diseased conditions, when the same appear like dandruff. But the particles
do not drop off immediately they die,
being held for awhile by the live
skin.

"To have the dermatological surgeon peel off the entire cuticle at one time is a painful and expensive operation. The same result is obtained by applying ordinary mercurized wax, as you would cold cream. One ounce is sufficient. The process is both painless and inexpensive. The wax, procurable at your drug stores,
hastens the natural shedding process.
It gradually absorbs the dead and half-dead skin, revealing the new,
healthy, youthful-looking skin beneath."

Quips and Cranks
and Wanton Wiles

Barred
There was an old darkey and his eye was very keen,
And he lived not so very long ago;
But he had no wool on the top of his
bean,
In the place where the wool ought to grow.

Come along hard times, and the money running slack;
The pork chops and the chicken they
was low
Which spelled hard times for poor
Mistah Jack,
And he had to go and hustle for the dough.

But they slammed the door right in Lil' Artha's face
And told him politely, "Good night!"
Now in vain Mistah Jack is a-looking for a place
Where a poor cullud champion can light.

Then lay down the fiddle and the bow?
Pick up the shovel and the hoe?
For it's more hard work for poor
Mistah Jack,
He's gone out a-shoveling snow.

Poor Sophia's Case

Dr. Ronald H. Curtis, the well known zoologist, said in a recent lecture in Charleston:
"I take no stock in all these yarns about the disinterested affection of animals. An animal's affection is parasitic—your dog loves you because you feed it. Analyze these yarns about animal affection and they turn out like Sophia's case.

"There was a rich old maid who had an ill-natured cur named Sophia.
The old maid died, leaving her fortune to her nephew, who had lived with her. I met the nephew one day and ventured to offer him my sincere sympathy. He said:

"Yes it's very sad. And the morning after my aunt's decease the dog Sophia also died."

"Grief, I suppose?" said I.

"No," said he "prussic acid."

Girls That Smoke

Apropos of the Ritz-Carlton, New York's fashionable hotel, that permits women to smoke, Mme. Simone, the Parisian actress, said the other day:

"Well, why shouldn't ladies
smoke? There's nothing ungraceful in the habit. On the contrary, to see a pretty woman with a cigarette is a very charming picture.

"Those who object to smoking
among women have never, perhaps, seen smoking done decorously. Their idea of smoking is that of the old Provencal woman.

"A society girl, calling on this old woman in her cottage took a cigarette from her gold case, fitted it in a tube of amber and said:

"You don't mind if I smoke, do you?"

"Why, of course not, dearie! Of course not!" said the old woman.
"Jeannie," she added to her servant,
"go fetch a spittoon!"

The Culprit
The teacher was very earnest—far more so than his pupils—and the subject he chose was about the terrible outcome of laziness and idleness.

With due solemnity, as befitted the occasion, he drew a terrible picture of the habitual loafer, the man who dislikes work, and who cadges for all he gets.

"Now, Charlie," said the teacher
to a little boy who had been looking out of the window instead of attending closely to the lesson.

Charlie was instantly on the alert.
"Tell me," continued the master,
"who is the miserable individual
who gets clothes, food and lodging,
and yet does nothing in return?"

Charlie's face brightened.
"Please, sir," said he, "the baby!"

Fails in Some Cases

There is no doubt that the tying
of a piece of string round the finger
is a really good aid to a poor memory; but there is a well authenticated case of a man who tied a piece of cotton around his finger in the morning to remind him to get his hair cut.

On his way home to dinner that evening he noticed the piece of cotton.

"Oh, yes, I remember," he said.
And smiling proudly he entered the accustomed shop and sat down
before the tonsorial operator.

"Er—yes, sir," said the artist,
puzzled inquiry in his tone.

"Er? Oh, yes; cut my hair,
please," commanded the absent
minded one curtly.

"Why, certainly, sir, if you wish it," said the artist. "But you won't mind my mentioning the fact that I cut it this morning, sir, will you?"
Tnt-Bits.

Overdue

The attorney for the defense:
"You see, your honor, my client is a foreigner, who can't speak a word of English. He doesn't understand our laws. He didn't know it was wrong to carry a revolver."

"Two revolvers and a dirk," corrected the judge.

"Yes, and so, in view of his ignorance, both of our customs and our language, I ask that he be discharged."

"Can't do it," said his honor.
"But I'll let him off with a fine of

The ignorant one, across the table
to his lawyer, and jerking his thumb toward the judge: "I'll get him some dark night for that!"—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Sometimes you encounter a man who is such a deep thinker that his thoughts never come to the surface.

THE CARPET
FROM BAGDAD

Copyright 1911—The Bobbs-Merrill Co.

As he uttered these pious expressions aloud, in a voice low and not unpleasant for all that it was bantering, the head-porter stared at him with fingling doubt and alarm; and as if to pronounce these emotions mutely for the benefit of the other, he permitted his eyes to open their widest.

"Tut, tut; that's all right, porer.
I am cursed with the habit of speaking my inmost thoughts. Some persons are afflicted with insomnia; some fall asleep in church; I think orally. Beastly habit, eh?"

The porter then understood that he was dealing not with a species of mild lunacy, but with that kind of light-hearted cynicism upon which the world (as porters know it) had set its approving seal. In brief, he smiled faintly, and if he had any pleasantry to pass in turn, the approach of the manager, now clothed metaphorically in deferentialism,
relegated it to the limbo of things
thought but left unsaid.

"Here is a letter for you, Mr.
Ryanne. Have you any more luggage?"

"No," Mr. Ryanne smiled. "Shall I pay for my room in advance?"

"Oh, no, sir!" Ten years ago the manager would have blushed at having been so misunderstood.
"Your room is 208."

"Will you have a boy show me
the way?"

"I shall myself attend to that. If the room is not what you wish it may be exchanged."

"The room is the one I telegraphed for. I am superstitious to a degree. On three boats I have had fine state-rooms numbered 208. Twice the number of my hotel room has been the same. On the last voyage here were 208 passengers, and the captain had made 208
voyages on the Mediterranean."

"Quite a coincidence."

"Ah, if roulette could be played with such a certainty."

Mr. Ryanne sighed, hitched up his bundle, which, being heavy, was beginning to wear upon his arm,
and signified to the manager to lead the way.

As they vanished round the corner to the lift, the head-porter studied the guest-list. He had looked over it a dozen times that day, but this was the first instance of his being really interested in it.
As his chin was freshly shaven he had no stubble to stroke to excite his mental processes; so he fell back, as we say, upon the consoling
ends of his abundant mustache.

Curious; but all these persons were occupying or about to occupy adjacent rooms. There was truly nothing mysterious about it, save that the stranger had picked out these very names as a target for his banter.

Fortune Chedsoye; it was rather an unusual name; but as she had arrived only an hour or so before, he could not distinctly recall her features. And then, there was that word bucolic. He mentally turned it over and over as physically he was wont to do with postcards left in his care to mail. He could make nothing of the word,
except that it smacked of the East Indian plague.

Here he was saved from further cerebral agony by a timely interruption. A man, who was not of bucolic persuasion, either in dress or speech, urban from the tips of his beached finger to the bulb of his bibulous nose, leaned across the counter and asked if Mr. Horace Ryanne had yet arrived. Yes, he had just arrived; he was even now on his way to his room. The urban gentleman nodded. Then, with a finger slim and well trimmed, he trailed up and down the guest-list.

"Ha! I see that you have the

ONE MILLION DOLLARS FOR A GOOD STOMACH

This Offer Should Be a Warning to Every Man and Woman

The newspapers and medical journals recently have had much to say relative to a famous millionaire's offer of a million dollars for a new stomach.

This great multi-millionaire was too busy to worry about the condition of his stomach. He allowed his dyspepsia to run from bad to worse
until in the end it became incurable.

His misfortune serves as a warning to others.

Every one who suffers with dyspepsia for a few years will give everything he owns for a new stomach.

Dyspepsia is commonly caused by an abnormal state of the gastric juices, or by lack of tone in the walls of the stomach. The result is that the stomach loses its power to digest food.

We are now able to supply certain missing elements—to help restore to the gastric juices their digestive power, and to aid in making the stom-

BUTLER, Pa.—The Rev. Dr.

Duke of What-d'-ye-call from Germany here. I'll give you my card.
Send it up to Mr. Ryanne. No hurry.
I shall be in again after dinner."

He hustled off toward the door.
He was puffy, well-fed, and decently dressed, the sort of a man who,
when he moved in any direction,
created the impression that he had an important engagement somewhere else or was paring minutes from time-tables. For a man in his business it was a clever expedient, deceiving all but those who knew him. He hesitated at the door, however, as if he had changed his mind in the twenty-odd paces it took to reach it. He stared for a long period at the elderly gentleman who was watching the feluccas
on the river through the window.

The white mustache and imperial stood out in crisp relief against the ruddy sunburn on his face. If he was aware of this scrutiny on the part of the puffy gentleman, he gave not the least sign. The revolving door spun round, sending a puff of outdoor air into the lounging-room. The elderly gentleman
then smiled, and applied his thumb
and forefinger to the waxen point of his imperial.

In the intervening time Mr.
Ryanne entered his room, threw the bundle on the bed, sat down beside it, and read his letter. Shadows and lights moved across his face:

frowns that hardened it, smiles that mellowed it. Women hold the trick of writing letters. Do they hate, their thoughts flash and burn
from line to line. Do they love, 'tis lettered music. Do they conspire, the breadth of their imagination is without horizon. At best, man can indite only a polite business letter,
his love-letters were adjudged long since a maudlin collection of loose sentences. In this letter Mr. Ryanne found the three parts of life.

"She's a good general; but hang these brimstone efforts of hers. She talks too much of heart. For my part, I prefer to regard it as a mere physical function, a pump, a motor,
a power that gives action to the legs, either in coming or in going,
more especially in going."

He laughed. "Well, here is the inspiration and hers is the law. And to think that she could plan all this on the spur of the moment, down to the minutest detail! It's a science."

He put the letter away, slid out his legs and glared at the dusty tips of his shoes. "The United Romance and Adventure Company, Ltd., of New York, London, and Paris. She has the greatest gift of all, the sense of humor."

Our Statement

Pianos that were made by one of the recognized great piano makers of today.

PLAYER PIANOS made in the same factory by the same men which have installed in them the latest "Auto De Luxe" player action, the player action that is known as the standard of the world and is used in the highest priced player pianos in the country. These player pianos were made to sell for $750 and are worth $750. We are going to sell them for $555 on payments or $527.25 cash, a saving of $222.75.

THESE UPRIGHT PIANOS were made to sell for $450 to $475. We are going to sell them for $295 on payments of $280.25 cash, a saving of $194.75.

That sounds incredible—and it would be were it not made possible through the misfortune of this great piano maker—it is a long story, which is a matter of court record (full particulars of which we will cheerfully give you) and you must consider that we stake the reputation of our house on these pianos and player-pianos being just what we represent them to be.

THE REASON WHY

You Can Purchase a $750 Player-Piano for $555

THE REASON WHY

You Can Purchase a $475 Upright Piano for $295

About two years ago the vice president and head of the manufacturing end of one of Boston's best factories severed their connection with it. They went to New York city, equipped one of the finest factories, made the finest Pianos and Player-Pianos they knew how. They put their own name on them. It was the same as the Boston house used. The Boston house went to court. The court issued a permanent injunction, preventing this firm from selling them under that name. They went into bankruptcy. We purchased these pianos from Mr. E. M. Backus, who bought the entire contents of this factory. We paid less than the cost of labor and material.

That is the "story why" you can buy them for $280.25 to $527.25.

NORTH SIDE YARDS CONGESTION OVER

The congestion of freight cars in the north side yards of the C. M. & St. P. railroad yards is being relieved to some extent. But 400 of the 750 freight cars which were in the yards last week now remain. Although the cars are being moved as quickly as possible and as soon as facilities can be provided it is expected that it will be about a week before all the cars will be sent out.

This means that about 350 cars have been sent out during the last few days and the remainder will be shipped within a short time. It has been some time since this many cars have been in the yards at one time and never have there been 750 in the yards. The destination of the cars is New York and other eastern points.

DIRECTS PINAFORE ORCHESTRA

PROF. F. W. RAWSTRON

Late of Bradford, England, now of La Crosse Conservatory of Music. Director of Pinafore Orchestra.

The gentleman whose picture appears above is giving special attention to the orchestral part of the production of Pinafore, and with the able assistance of Mrs. F. M. Marston at the piano and the full La Crosse Theater orchestra, something very much out of the ordinary in instrumental music is expected.

Judging from rehearsals "Little Buttercup," as played and sung by Miss Viola Doerflinger will be a treat to the music loving people of this city.

Miss Ruth Heath, as "Hebe," first cousin of the admiral, promises to make that part a great success.

The part of Josephine, the captain's daughter, will be sung and played by Miss Margretha Marston, who will make her first bow to a La Crosse audience next Friday night.

James R. Kerr, as the admiral, has an opportunity of using that splendid baritone voice, when he sings, "I am the Monarch of the Sea," which with the acting part of a fussy British nobleman he does to perfection.

Emil Niemeyer as Captain Corcoran, commanding officer of H. M. S. Pinafore, in the uniform of one Royal Navy will present a new appearance before the La Crosse people as an opera singer. Michael Nowak as Ralph Rackstraw, the ardent lover of the captain's daughter, holds in store a great surprise for the La Crosse people as an opera tenor.

Myron Locke, as Dick Deadeye, bellows forth from the depths of his grotesque character warnings and bits of advice of his superior officers and shipmates.

R. S. Ryning as the Boatswain, has a splendid voice which he uses to good advantage in the song, "He is an Englishman," which is one of the most pleasing features of the performance.

Bernard Volz as the Boatswain mate has a splendid tenor voice which he uses with telling effect.

This splendid cast, together with the chorus of 60 selected voices well trained, and in perfect harmony will prove that the efforts of Prof. Marston have not been in vain.

The costumes and scenery which are being brought from Chicago and Milwaukee at no small expense, prove that Business Manager M. Locke is in earnest and means to give us the real thing. Let us wish him the success he deserves.

A HARMLESS WAY TO DARKEN THE HAIR

A Little Sage and Sulphur
Makes Gray Hair Vanish—A Remedy for All Hair Troubles

Who does not know the value of Sage and Sulphur for keeping the hair dark, soft and glossy and in good condition? As a matter of fact, Sulphur is a natural element of hair, and a deficiency of it in the hair is held by many scalp specialists to be connected with loss of color and vitality of the hair. Unquestionably, there is no better remedy for hair and scalp troubles, especially premature graying, than Sage and Sulphur. If properly prepared.

The Wyeth Chemical Company of New York put out an ideal preparation of this kind, called Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy, in which sage and sulphur are combined with other valuable remedies for keeping the hair and scalp in clean, healthy condition.

If your hair is losing its color or constantly coming out, or if you are troubled with dandruff or dry, itchy scalp, get a fifty cent bottle of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur from your druggists, use it according to the simple directions, and see what a difference a few days' treatment will make in the appearance of your hair.

All druggists sell it, under guarantee that the money will be refunded if the remedy is not exactly as represented.

DOESN'T ADVOCATE THE WATER WAGON

MANDAN, N. D., Jan. 29.—Evidence of the fact that there are some thirsty people in North Dakota was furnished in the district court of Morton county when the Northern Pacific depot agent at Glen Ullin, George Ling, produced records which showed that one individual had received 14,000 bottles of beer in a year. In the receiving of this beer it was declared that the product was for "personal use."

Statisticians have figured out that the recipient of that amount of liquor would have to drink an average of slightly more than forty-five quarts a day to dispose of the entire amount.

COMMITTEE PROBES RESERVATION GRAFT

ST. PAUL, Minn., Jan. 29.—In light of the work of Senator Moses E. Clapp and Representative Halvor Steenerson in connection with the Clapp rider on the Indian appropriations bill of 1906, which ultimately resulted in the alleged defrauding of the Indians by timber and real estate speculators, was among a few matters bordering on the sensational introduced by government attorneys yesterday afternoon before the subcommittee of congress taking testimony at Minneapolis in the White Earth Indian reservation probe.

GRAND JURY CHARGE IS INVESTIGATED

WINONA, Minn., Jan. 29.—The Winona county board Saturday called upon Frank Lockwood, overseer of the Winona county poor farm, to explain the charge of the recent grand jury that undue and unnecessary means are being employed at the institution to enforce discipline. The overseer declared the charge was inspired when the grand jury visited the farm and found one of the inmates nursing a slightly blackened eye. He admitted he struck the aged inmate, but had done so after the latter had directed abusive language toward a woman.

FARMERS TO KILL RECIPROCITY ACT

GRAND FORKS, N. D., Jan. 29.—North Dakota farmers are not yet entirely sure that Canadian reciprocity is a dead issue and at a meeting in Glenburn today the Ward Society of Equity adopted resolutions asking North Dakota congressional representatives to seek the repeal of the measure, which remaining alive, leaves Canada in a position to accept it at any time. At Adams a gathering of farmers passed similar resolutions, declaring their belief that the measure should be removed at once.

Antidote for Blushing.

If you blush, put on glasses, advises Dr. H. Campbell, an English physician. Not tin ones to conceal the object which caused your flush. Or, no—but regular glass glasses, "strong convex lenses," he says in the Practitioner. And this is how he demonstrates his proposition:

"The artificial myopia thus induced by blurring the surroundings tends to diminish self-consciousness. The female sex is more apt to blush than the male sex, although more men than women seek medical help for morbid blushing."

Among the "horrible examples" which Dr. Campbell came across in practice were those of a young man who was obliged to leave the army because of blushing; of a physician, forty years old, who abandoned his practice because of it; of a minister, thirty-two, who "blushed" himself out of the pulpit.

Death or Chicago

MEN GET DRUNK ON MINCE PIE

DEVILS LAKE, N. D., Jan. 29.—Word received here today from Minnewaukon, county seat of Benson county, states that officials of that county Saturday started an investigation to determine the ingredients of a certain brand of mince pie, which is said to contain a fine brand of whiskey. It is said two pieces of the pastry will make a customer think he can consume the entire output of the restaurant. The dealer, it is said, is making a fortune from his pie counter.

The pie is sold at 10 cents the cut. The officers making the investigation say the Benson county man thinks he has discovered a new way of circumventing the North Dakota prohibition law. County Attorney Sinness is making the investigation for the state.

GOT THE GRIP?

Here is a Simple Home Remedy That Will Cure You in a Hurry

"Got the grippe?" "It's fashionable, but very miserable, nevertheless. The doctors say it is epidemic. Here is a prescription that is working more cures than all the drugs under the sun. You can mix it at home for yourself. A teaspoonful every four hours will break up the worst case inside of a few hours. Shake together in a large bottle two ounces of glycerine, eight ounces of pure whiskey and one-half ounce virgin oil of pine. You can get the ingredients from any druggist. Be careful to secure only the genuine virgin oil of pine, which you can identify by the sealed wooden carton bearing the name of the Leach Chemical Company, of Cincinnati, on the label. Put up in this form the essential properties of the virgin oil of pine are absolutely preserved and the effectiveness of the medicine is assured.

There will be quite a little of the medicine left over after your grippe has been cured. This will serve as the most effective cough and cold remedy for the whole family for months to come.

SURE TO BREAK A SEVERE COLD

Will Overcome All distress from a bad cold or the Grippe in just a few hours

The most severe cold will be broken, and all grippie misery ended after taking a dose of Pape's Cold Compound every two hours until three consecutive doses are taken.

You will distinctly feel all the disagreeable symptoms leaving after the very first dose.

The most miserable headache, dullness, head and nose stuffed up, feverishness, sneezing, running of the nose, sore throat, mucous catarrhal discharges, soreness, stiffness, rheumatism pains and other distress vanishes.

Pape's Cold Compound is the result of three years' research at a cost of more than fifty thousand dollars, and contains no quinine, which we have conclusively demonstrated is not effective in the treatment of colds or grippie.

Take this harmless Compound as directed, with the knowledge that there is no other medicine made anywhere else in the world, which will cure your cold or end Grippie misery as promptly and without any other assistance or bad after-effects as a 25 cent package of Pape's Cold Compound, which any druggist in the world can supply.

Public Taste.

"Now," the manager complained, "there is an interesting play; the star is young, beautiful, and a splendid actress; the company is a capable, well-balanced one, and the production is excellent in every respect—yet it is a failure. The people simply will not become interested in it. How do you account for it?"

"I don't account for it," replied the man with the high brow and the wrinkles which indicated that he was in the habit of thinking. "I have made a rather careful study of the public during the last few years, and if you think talent, worthiness and general excellence are to be relied upon for success in any art or profession which is compelled to depend upon public patronage it will be a waste of time to do any accounting for the failure you mention."

Jack the Ripper FRIGHTENS NEENAH

NEENAH, Wis., Jan. 29.—Neenah people have a new sort of Jack the Ripper to contend with. For some time past, housewives have awakened in the morning to find the undergarments of a washing left out over night, slashed and cut to threads. Other articles are not touched. There is a suspicion of who the guilty party is and the police are investigating.

GREEN BAY WINS OPEN AIR SCHOOL

Try This, Instead of Quinine, for Colds

Pinex Cold Tablets give almost instant relief in colds or la grippe and usually wipe out the trouble completely inside of 20 hours. No other remedy will stop the aches and pains so quickly. Cost no more than quinine capsules, and are immensely superior.

Pinex Cold Tablets reduce the fever, check the nasal discharge, restore normal activity in the pores, and are very pleasantly laxative and tonic. Do not contain a particle of opiates or coal tar heart depressants. Simple, harmless and very agreeable.

Don't accept a substitute—one trial of this quick-acting remedy will show you that there is nothing else "just as good" as Pinex Cold Tablets. Money refunded if disappointed. 25c per box. If necessary, send to The Pinex Co., Fort Wayne, Ind., (makers of "Pinex" Cough Remedy).

FOR SICK HEADACHE, SOUR STOMACH LAZY LIVER OR SLUGGISH BOWELS

Turn the rascals out—the headache, the biliousness, the indigestion, the sick, sour stomach and foul gases—turn them out tonight and keep them out with Cascarets.

Millions of men and women take a Cascaret now and then and never know the misery caused by a lazy liver, clogged bowels or an upset stomach.

Don't put in another day of distress. Let Cascarets cleanse and regulate your stomach; remove the sour, undigested and fermenting food and that misery-making gas; take the excess bile from your liver and carry off the decomposed waste matter and poison from the intestines and bowels. Then you will feel great.

A Cascaret tonight will straighten you out by morning—a 10-cent box means a clear head and cheerfulness for months. Don't forget the children—their little insides need a good, gentle cleansing, too.

WISCONSIN NEWS

START MOVE TO IMPROVE ROAD

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Jan. 29.—Over 3,500,000 people would be directly served by an improved road between Milwaukee and Chicago. In addition, the great tide of automobile travel every summer from the east and the south and west meet at Chicago as the central point in the middle west and from Chicago countless touring parties would be tempted to visit the metropolis of Wisconsin were the roads in suitable condition to invite travel.

Inspired by the knowledge of what this would mean to Milwaukee and to the state with its myriad of lakes and pleasure resorts, for which Milwaukee would be the gateway for the automobile tourist, the Citizens' Business league has been active in attempting to educate public opinion to the necessity of organizing for the improvement of "a good, broad highway leading down" and its efforts are about to bear fruit in the organization of the Chicago-Milwaukee Road association, as a delegation of Chicagoans is to arrive in Milwaukee in a few days for the purpose of forming the preliminary organization of the new association.

HARMON OFFICES ARE ESTABLISHED

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Jan. 29.—The Harmon forces will open headquarters in the St. Charles hotel for the purpose of getting in closer touch with the democrats of Milwaukee county and the eastern part of the state, and also as a basis for conducting their campaign throughout the state today. Branch headquarters will be continued in Madison, A. A. Allen will be in charge of the headquarters here and J. E. Jones will look after the Madison branch.

BOMB IS USED TO DESTROY BUILDING

MADISON, Wis., Jan. 29.—An attempt was made to blow up a three story brick building at 749 West Washington avenue, owned by Carmelo Oliva, an Italian mason contractor, at 2:30 o'clock Sunday morning. None of the twenty persons in the building were hurt, though all were thrown out of their beds. Only slight damage was done to the building.

The police believe that the perpetrator was actuated by revenge for some real or fancied injury and expected to destroy the building and its inmates.

How Many Women Keep Young

"A woman may be old at 18 and young at 80," says Mrs. Margaret Holmes Bates, prominent Chicago club woman. "Years don't matter. Didn't Ninon de L'Enclos have a proposal at 90?"

The youth of our women is more lasting that it was a generation ago, because we are becoming acquainted with simple physiological laws. When the first aging marks appear—wrinkles, baggy cheeks, neck and chin—we realize that the cause is a loosening of the skin and softening of the tissue underneath. We know the cause must be removed. Instead of laying on pastes we send to the drug store for an ounce of salolite and a half pint of witch hazel, mix them and bathe face, neck and hands in the solution. We know this tightens the skin, solidifies the tissue, induces a healthy circulation. We treat causes rather than effects. We use reason—and stay young.

BRIDGE AND ROAD FUND IS DIVIDED

Rawlinson Makes Out New Table of Appropriations to Different Towns in County

CAMPBELL GETS THE MOST

$7,200 Will Be Spent on Its Highways This Year; Shortage Is Made Up

Owing to the mistake made during the November meeting of the county board, on the amount the county would have to appropriate in order to bring the state aid on public highways to the amount called for by the appropriations of the individual towns, County Clerk Charles Rawlinson has found it necessary to make a new table of appropriations.

At that time the appropriation which was made by the board, although thought to be sufficient, was later found to be $1,350 short of the required amount. This has been taken from the general fund to bring the road fund to the required amount.

Following are the amounts which will be received by the various towns from the different sources:

Town	Town Appropriations (Roads)	County Appropriations	State Aid Apportionment	Total
Bangor	$ 800.00	1,011.32	$ 588.68	$ 2,400

TRAIN KILLS PRIEST

FREIGHT HITS GASOLINE SPEEDER, AND PRIEST AND BOY KILLED ON WAY TO CHURCH

MANKATO, Minn., Jan. 29.—Rev. J. J. Culliton, 35, pastor of the Catholic churches at Mapleton and Good Thunder, and Elmer Hanson, 20, of Mapleton, were killed, and Hanson's father, Herman Hanson, section foreman, escaped injury, yesterday when a gasoline handcar they were riding on was run down by a Milwaukee road freight. Rev. Culliton was on his way to Mapleton to hold services when the accident occurred.

The handcar had reached a point half a mile south of Good Thunder when suddenly an extra freight was seen approaching in a heavy snowstorm. Herman Hanson leaped from the handcar and escaped. The other two men were on the car when it was struck and wrecked. Father Culliton and young Hanson were dead when the train crew went to their assistance.

HOUSE-KEEPERS IN LA CROSSE PLEASED

Every cook in La Crosse is delighted with the rich, nut-like flavor of "Minnesota" macaroni and spaghetti. Even people who never liked these foods, say they could eat "Minnesota" macaroni every day.

Good macaroni and spaghetti are easily digested and they are always appetizing because they can be prepared in so many different ways. They are fine for children—making their bodies strong and healthy, and they give grown people the power of endurance without overtaxing the stomach.

But if you want that rich, nut-like flavor be sure and get the delicious "Minnesota" brand macaroni or spaghetti—made from the finest Northern Durum wheat, with all the nourishing Gluten left in. It is easily digested and never gets soggy. All good La Crosse grocers sell it.

DEATH TAKES TWO OUT OF FAMILY

Wenzel J. Kubal Dies Four Days After His Father; Funeral Will Be Wednesday

Taken sick the same day that his father, Mathias Kubal, died, Wenzel J. Kubal, aged 39 years, 413 Jay street, was moved to the La Crosse hospital where he was operated on for appendicitis which later developed into pneumonia and he died yesterday afternoon at 5:20 o'clock from pneumonia. Mathias Kubal died Thursday morning and that same day his son, Wenzel J. Kubal, became sick.

Mr. Kubal was born in Vien, Bohemia, on September 26, 1873. He came to America twenty-six years ago settling in La Crosse where he had relatives. He has been the proprietor of a saloon at 413 Jay street for some time.

Mr. Kubal was a member of the Eighth Ward Aid society and the Z. C. B. J. Workingmen's society and the Bohemian Workingmen's society.

Surviving him are his widow, five children, Adolph, Wenzel, Thomas, Marie, and Helen, the oldest of whom is fourteen years of age while the youngest is five, his mother, and three brothers, Albert and Mike of La Crosse, and Thomas, of California.

The funeral will be held Wednesday morning at nine o'clock from St. Wenceslaus church with Rev. X. Till officiating at the services. Burial will be made in the Catholic cemetery.

MRS. HALVORSON BURIED

Many friends and relatives paid their last tribute to the memory of Mrs. Marit Halvorson, 322 Cameron avenue, this morning when the funeral was held from the house at 8:30 o'clock and from the Norwegian Lutheran church at nine o'clock with Rev. Magelssen preaching the funeral sermon. The pallbearers were Bert Nelson, Mont Nelson, Ed. Olson, A. O. Nelson, John Johnsrud, and John Anderson. Interment was made in Oak Grove cemetery.

PASTOR HANGS SELF IN JAIL

LONG PRAIRIE, Minn., Jan. 29.—Rev. R. T. Guernsey, pastor of the Baptist church of Long Prairie, committed suicide yesterday by hanging himself in a cell in the Todd county jail, the news just becoming known.

Rev. Mr. Guernsey was dismissed from his pulpit by the trustees of the church a week ago and was arrested Saturday night and sentenced to ninety days on complaints filed with the county authorities by several parents. His body was found early yesterday. He had hanged himself by making a rope and noose of his bedclothing and tying one end to the bars of his cell door.

A married woman has more kinds of suspicion than an unabridged dictionary.

A soft answer will not turn away an agent with something to sell.

WHO CAN ANSWER IT?

WHERE DOES THE BOY HEALER'S POWER COME FROM?

DOES NOT KNOW HIMSELF.

Prominent People in All Walks of Life Are Flocking to Him Daily.

Like the triumphal march of a Roman conqueror, has been the progress of Mr. Gallagher, the Minnesota Boy Healer, in La Crosse. He came here unknown, but his marvelous powers soon commanded attention and he now finds himself busy administering to the afflicted and those who have abandoned hope of ever getting well. Many are asking what manner of man is this who has come among us? Whence comes his unseen ability to cure? How is it possible without drugs or appliances to make one good as new again?

And well may they be asked, but to answer is a difficult matter even by the healer himself. He confesses that the power was born with him and that the laying on of hands with wonderful results is simply a gift of nature, a something that he does not understand. When the nervous, the blind, the halt and the lame become as healthy as in youth under his treatment, it is, indeed, something to ponder over. Many well known people have been cured by or vastly benefited and more are now in process of reconstruction.

Callers may see him daily at his office, 514 1/2 State street.

Annual Meeting of the La Crosse Mut. Loan & Building Ass'n.

BOARD OF TRADE FAVORS BANQUET

Answers to Queries Indicate Approval of Plan; Glee Club Is Planned

Answers to postal card inquiries sent out by Secretary J. L. Utermoehl to the members of the board of trade in regard to a proposed banquet to be held in one of the downtown hotels in the near future indicate that the plan meets with the approval of the majority of the members. The matter will be taken up and definitely decided at the regular meeting of the board of directors at the La Crosse club tomorrow afternoon. It is very probable that the banquet will be given.

Secretary Utermoehl is at work organizing a board of trade glee club which will give a series of entertainments, the proceeds of which will go into the advertising fund of the board. Invitations have been sent to about forty singers to meet at the Germania hall tonight. It is planned to give the concert accompanied by a large orchestra. The praises of La Crosse and its industries will be sung both to the profit of the public and the board of trade.

Requests sent to the various manufacturers, retail and wholesale merchants and jobbers of the city for certain statistics to be used in the compiling of business statistics of the town are not meeting with as quick a response as had been hoped for by Mr. Utermoehl. The first week or two the answers came in in a highly gratifying manner but several firms have not as yet responded. Mr. Utermoehl is anxious to get them all in as soon as possible and will begin a personal canvass in the near future.

NO TRUCE IN BATTLE

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Jan. 29.—There will be no truce in the fight between Speaker Champ Clark and former Governor Falk for control of the Missouri delegation to the democratic national convention. In a letter received here, Clark's campaign manager flatly refuses to enter into a compromise suggested by W. J. Bryan. The Commoner suggested that Falk and Clark split the Missouri delegation between them and the one showing the least strength on the first ballot at the national convention then drop out.

Grain Letter

CHICAGO, Jan. 29.—Cable news caused a remarkable spurt in the grain market here today. Early in the day May wheat was bid up to $1.02. A profit taking period caused a slight recession in prices, but later the buying campaign was resumed.

The cables from Liverpool told of light world's shipments, a very small supply of grain in Russia and decreases in Liverpool stocks with heavy demands in spot market, especially for Manitoba wheat. All northwestern markets were firm on reports that continued cold weather may have a serious effect on the crop that was seeded late.

The market started narrow and listless for corn, but the spurt in wheat futures spread to the corn pit and this cereal registered substantial gains in both May and July futures without any definite news as to corn conditions.

The activity in other grains was reflected in the oats market. This market started quiet but firm. Prices began to harden soon after the opening and large buying orders were in evidence. There was considerable selling at the bulges.

Provisions were weak. The big run of hogs at the yards, 60,000 for today, inspired heavy selling by local speculators.

ALIENATION SUIT STIRS SOUTH

MISS NETTIE BRYANT OTT

MRS. JOSEPHINE HUBBARD

LOUISVILLE, Ky.—The alienation suit for $50,000 brought by Mrs. Josephine Hubbard against Miss Nettie Bryant Ott, has stirred local society as no similar event of recent years has because of the prominence of all parties involved. Miss Ott is a familiar figure not only in Louisville but in New York, where she annually attends the horse show. Her daring feats on the track have won admiration and it was through her prowess in this particular that the trouble arose.

Mr. Hubbard is himself an enthusiastic horseman, and he and Miss Ott have driven together in matinee horse shows.

Irony of Fate.

The irony of fate crops out in the fact that the men whose portraits would look best in the magazines never succeeded in making it worth while for the magazine to publish portraits of them.

Janus in Mythical History.

Janus was invoked at the commencement of most actions; even in the worship of the other gods the votary began by offering wine and incense to Janus. The first month in the year was named for him.—M. A. Dwight.

Always in Demand.

No age has ever been so plentifully supplied with great minds that any of 'em went jobless.—John A. Howland.

CLOSE GAME WON BY BADGER FIVE

Wisconsin Beats Chicago 18 to 15, and Wins the Fifth Straight Victory

CHICAGO, Jan. 29.—The University of Wisconsin basketball team triumphed over the University of Chicago five Saturday night at Bartlett gymnasium, 18 to 15. The game was marked by the excellent guarding of Scoville and Van Riper. Molander kept the Maroons in the running by his accurateness in heaving free throws.

Molander started the starring with a free throw. Van Riper followed this with a field basket. After Bell had tossed a field basket Van Riper came back with another, putting Wisconsin in the front. The Badgers kept the lead and the half finished with them on the long end of a 7 to 6 score. Molander started the second half with a free throw, tying the score. He followed this up with two more, but Johnson came right back for the Cardinals. Scoville and Molander both added two for their teams and Van Riper tossed a ringer. The Badgers kept the lead for the remainder of the game.

VANDAL AT LARGE

CHICAGO, Jan. 29.—North shore residents were thrown into a terror of fear Saturday for the safety of their art gems and antique furniture, collected from all parts of the world. ## Too Soon.

The cave-man was gifted with prophetic vision, and when he perceived how hideously hairy he was, a discontent took possession of him. "If automobiles were only invented," he muttered bitterly, "I should be setting the style in winter coats." That sense of having been born too soon, when has it not served to rob men of their peace?—Puck.

Simple Allegory.

A Tear said to the Smile: "Mamma is gone; let us have a race." They started. Sometime the Tear was ahead; then again the Smile appeared. At last the Tear went in full speed, and had nearly won—but there, Smile saw mamma in the door—and won the race.

A woman's smile seldom means what a man thinks it does.

VIROQUA BEATS AGGIES 17 TO 8

Onalaska School Is Ahead in First Half, but They Meet Defeat in Last Period

In a well played game of basketball the Viroqua high school five defeated the Agricultural school quintet by a score of 17 to 8 at Viroqua Friday evening.

Although the Aggies had the best of the first half the Viroqua team came back strong in the last period, overcoming the advantage of the visitors and finally winning out. The Viroqua guards put up an excellent game and their defensive work in holding the Aggie forwards down to one field goal each was one of the features of the battle. The Aggies were handicapped to some extent in their play by the smallness of the ball.

A return game between Viroqua and the agricultural school will be played in Onalaska in about three weeks.

Summary—Field goals: Reid 1, Pralle 1, Lundemo 1, Running 3, Stevens 4. Free throws: Reid 1, Pralle 1, Stevens 3, Referee, T. Gardner, La Crosse high school. Umpire, Phillips, Viroqua. Timekeeper and scorer, H. Bangsberg.

ELGIN FANS ARE SORE AT WAUSAU

ELGIN, Ill., Jan. 29.—Baseball fans are indignant today over the action of President Charles F. Moll of the Illinois-Wisconsin league, in the posting of a forfeit by Wausau, Wis., for representation in the circuit. The announcement that Wausau had been permitted to put up its money for a franchise was made at a meeting of fans here last night. Wausau and Elgin were being considered for membership in the league and it was understood that Wausau's opportunity to get in ended last week. The forfeit money was posted yesterday. This week the proposition of league ball was to be put up to Elgin. Local fans have sufficient funds to insure the success of a team and are waiting action by the league management on the question of whether Elgin or Wausau is to be given recognition.

LUXURIOUS BALL PARK

NEW YORK, Jan. 29.—Potted palms, wicker rockers, Persian rugs and a lobby fashioned after those of the big hotels, will be features of Charlie Ebbett's new baseball park in Brooklyn, according to an announcement today. Uniformed patrolmen will be on the job to tell the chauffeur whenever a spectator wants his car.

And the Simplest. Deputation of Creditors—We've come to tell you that we are quite willing to make as easy an arrangement with you as possible.

Debtor—The easiest arrangement you could make would be all to go away again.

Tomato Oil in Commerce.

Tomato oil, useful for varnish and as a fuel, is now made from the waste of the tomato-preserved industry. In the province of Pomo, Italy, where $4,000 tons of tomatoes have been used in the last year, waste has been about 15 per cent, and partial freeing from water by pressing left a mass—chiefly of seeds—of about 4,000 tons. The seed mass, by cold compression, yields 18 per cent of golden yellow oil.

If a policeman was on a robber's trail, would that be a copper cent?

MEYER MAY BE WORLD'S CHAMPION

NEW YORK, Jan. 29.—Alvah T. Meyer of the Irish-American Athletic club is trying to learn positively whether he really holds the world's championship record for the 100 metres run. At the Loughlin lyceum games he was accredited with a mark of 10 3/5 seconds, 1-5 of a second better than the previous mark. Experts, however, insist that there was a mistake made in the timing as Meyer had never been able to run 100 yards in ten seconds, while the speed he was alleged to have attained in the 100 metres run was as good as 9 3/5 for that distance.

WASHINGTON TEAM BEATEN BY LINCOLN

Two games played by the grade school basketball league on Saturday resulted in the Lincoln school team defeating the Washington school by the overwhelming score of 28 to 4 while the Lincoln school second team was beaten 11 to 8 by the Hamilton school. Both games were interesting although the Lincoln school won the first game easily. The Washington school team still heads the league and they have not yet been beaten.

Failure is as familiar as success is shy.

INTERNATIONAL SKI TOURNAMENT GOOD

CHICAGO, Jan. 29.—Local enthusiasts in outdoor sports today voted the international ski tournament that closed yesterday at the Cary course of the Norge club, the greatest winter sporting event ever held here. In spite of the chill wind and the stinging air, 8,000 people traveled to the course and stood for half a day in the snow watching the graceful jumpers hurl themselves at terrific speed down the incline.

Lars Haugen of Chippewa Falls, Wis., won the professional jumps with a mark of 123 feet. He received a marking on points by 262 by

Y QUINTET BEATEN FOR FIRST TIME

For the first time this season the Y. M. C. A. basketball team met defeat when the Sacred Heart college quintet of Prairie du Chien beat them 38 to 22 in a fast game on Saturday.

The Prairie du Chien school obtained an early lead which the local boys were unable to overcome as a result of which they lost their first game of the year. Although La Crosse was beaten they put up an excellent battle and their teamwork was superior to that of the victors. Rand and Meinert of the Y. M. C. A. five played great games and their work was a feature of the contest.

These two teams will play another game later in the year at Prairie du Chien and the locals expect to get revenge for their defeat at that time. The locals had not been able to practice at all last week and this was in some measure responsible for the loss of the game.

the referees. O. Feiring made a jump of 128 feet but fell and was marked down to fourth place by the officials. S. Hansen, Fergus Falls, Minn., was second with 113 feet; E. Landvik of Stoughton, Wis., third with 115 feet. Landvik fell and the judges gave second place to Hansen. Hansen also won the professional standing jump by registering 119 feet. He was voted the most graceful jumper on the course. Carl Solberg of St. Paul, who took the amateur contest on Saturday, won the standing jump in his class, making 121 feet and placing the amateur marking ahead of the professionals. Sven Welhaven, the Norwegian, was adjudged the most graceful jumper among the amateurs.

At a business meeting of the association it was decided to hold the 1912 meeting at Duluth, Minn. Prizes were presented at a banquet at the Sherman House last night.

SPEED SKATERS TEAM

SKAT TOURNAMENT IS HELD YESTERDAY

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Jan. 29.—One thousand skat players sat down in the West Side Turn hall yesterday afternoon to compete in the annual tournament of the Wisconsin Skat league. Play was divided into two sessions, the first starting at 2:45 yesterday afternoon and the second at 7:45 last night. The big hall was filled to capacity and the smaller rooms and balconies were also utilized.

The scores of the players will be figured up some time today and the winners will be announced as soon as possible.

The annual meeting of the Wisconsin association was held yesterday morning at the Republican house and the reports of the officers read and accepted. Officers for the ensuing year were elected and with the exception of R. W. Luck, corresponding secretary, all were returned to office. J. Gemmerly of Racine was elected to succeed Mr. Luck.

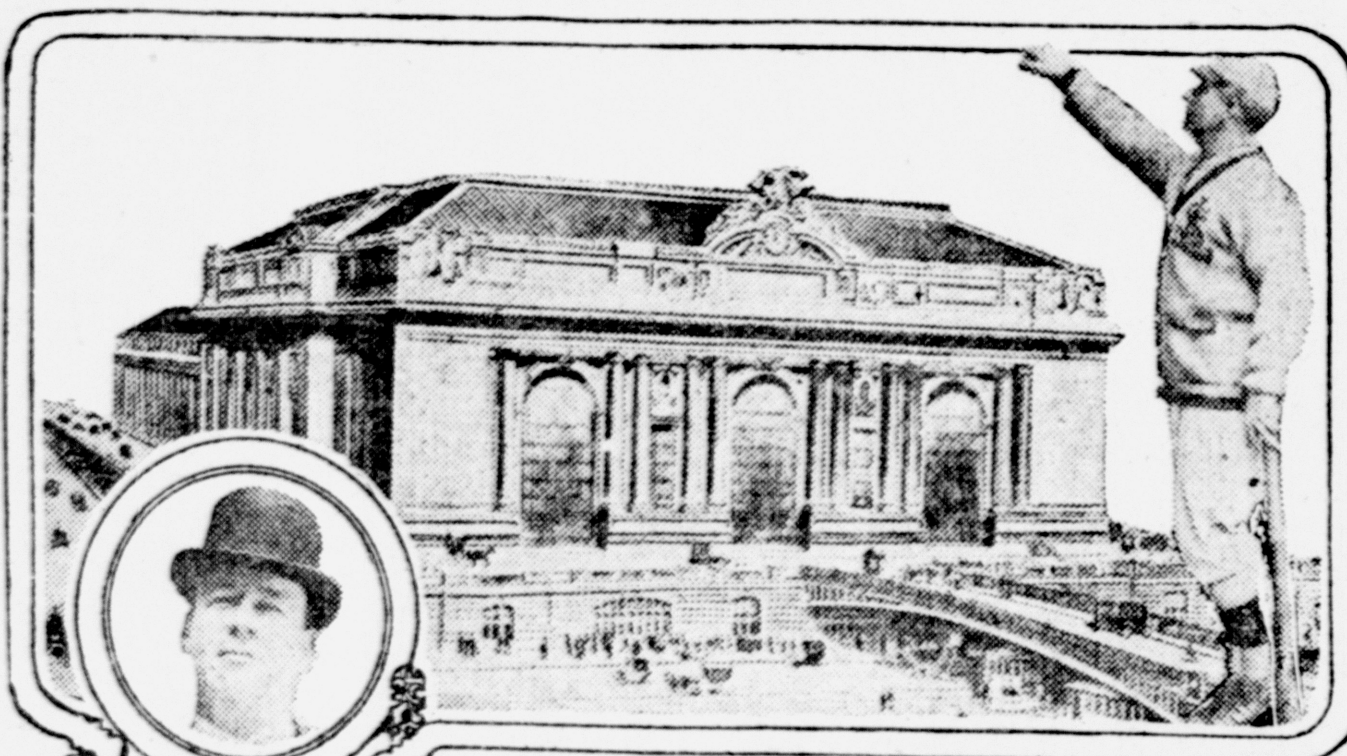

Racine went after the summer tournament of the association hard and received the award. Skat at present is booming in the Belle City and the skat league in that city is growing rapidly. With the excellent accommodations in the way of halls, and the fine railroad facilities, there is no reason why the tournament should not be a huge success.

The following officers were re-elected: President, John C. Fehlandt, of Madison; vice-president, Charles F. Fechter, Manitowish; secretary, Oscar E. Schwemer, Milwaukee; treasurer, E. K. Ansover, Green Bay; directors, William A. Bahr, Milwaukee; Otto Bergemann, Plymouth; M. M. Dreyfuss, Milwaukee; Gustav Guenther, Chilton; Joseph F. Huber, West Bend; William F. J. Landwehr, Milwaukee; Charles C. Miller, Beaver Dam; Charles A. Mueller, Port Washington, and H. E. Zimmermann, Burlington.

BASEBALL PARK ON TOP OF GRAND CENTRAL DEPOT

CHARLES WHITE

NEW GRAND CENTRAL TERMINAL

NEW YORK.—If the plans of Charles White, who has been granted the franchise for the proposed new United States league, are carried through he will have the most unique baseball park in the world. It is his plan, which has already progressed favorably, to build on the roof of the new Grand Central station in this city a magnificent park rivaling any other park in size, beauty, accessibility and in convenience. The plan includes the sodding of the roof, the building of club houses and grand stands, just as in other baseball parks. This will give him an immense field and all the conveniences of an up-to-date ball ground. White claims that he has the necessary backing to carry this plan through. The roof of the new Grand Central station affords plenty of room, more, in fact, than any other baseball ground in the country. Home runs could easily be made inside the enclosure. There would be no more loss of balls than at the Polo grounds or at the American league park.
